Current Charts of Interest – UPDATE (Jan 2017)

We have been trading TOX on the ASX since it broke above resistance in the first week of December 2016. WE alerted our subscribers to the trading opportunity and here, we update the progress of the trade, using my propriety DEMAC technique.

We alerted subscribers to the opportunity presented by ORG in December 2016. The stock made a clear trend channel breakout to the upside. For us that isnt enough of an entry signal. What we also looked for was support from the OBV indicator, the GMMA and stochastic indicator. We got all three and so the trade became a no brainer.
